

JOB DESCRIPTION

Job Title	Electrical supervisor
Department	construction

Job Summary:

As an Electrical supervisor you are responsible to provide technical guidance regarding the installation, maintenance and repair of electrical systems.

General Duties and Responsibilities:

Review future building plans and inspect new building to ensure compliance with current electrical codes and maintenance.

Knowledge, Skills and Abilities:

- Knowledge of applicable electrical codes, standards, and regulations.
- Knowledge of supervisory principles, practices, and technics.
- Knowledge of electrical applications for high and low voltage electrical systems.
- Skill in the installation, repair, and maintenance of all types of electrical system equipment and components.
- Skill in estimating time and material requirements of assigned work projects.
- Skill in applying supervisory technics.
- Knowledge in MV panels, cable termination and glanding , DB dressing , fire alarm and cctv system are a must have.